Letter from Belgrade, Feb. 7.

" WE have had Three Shocks of an Earthquake in and near this City, but the Damage done is very inconſiderable.

A Report is ſpread, that a Body of Turkiſh Troops have block'd up the Fort of Sabatich. One Dimo, Courier to M. Kalkoen, Embaſſador from the States General to the Grand Seignior, who arrived here ſome time ago, ſet out the firſt Inſt. on his Return to Conſtantinople, whither he is carrying Diſpatches for all the Embaſſadors of the Chriſtian Powers. This Courier was in that Metropolis when Count Bonneval was diſgraced, and was an Eye-witneſs of his ſetting out for the Place of his Exile."

Vienna, March 20. Count Wallis ſets out this Evening for Hungary, and will arrive at the Army before moſt of the General Officers, he having declar'd that he thought it a very ill Cuſtom for the General in Chief to be laſt at the Army, who ought to be there the firſt.

Extract of a Letter from Calvi, in the Iſland of Corſica.

" The Malecontents are ſtill Maſters of the Field, and " there is room to believe that they have great Intelli- " gences and many Partiſans in all the Towns of this " Iſland. The 5th Inſtant an Officer arriv'd here from " the Governor of Ajaccio, demanding a ſpeedy Rein- " forcement, becauſe the Inhabitants of that Town ſeem " ſo ſtrongly inclin'd to favour the Malecontents, that " he had great room to fear that they would attempt " ſome Coupe d' Eclat; upon which a French Man of " War, and Bark, that were in this Port, were imme- " diately ſent thither; and we are impatient to know " what has paſs'd there ſince."

Glouceſter, March 17. They write from Wells in Somerſetſhire, that a Woman of that Place was delivered of Four Sons and a Daughter at a Birth, and that they are all Chriſtened and likely to live.

Orders have been iſſued to His Majeſty's Yards, to ſheath and prepare ſeveral Men of War for Guard Ships.

When the Houſe of Lords took the Convention into Conſideration, and the ſame was read, Mr. Drake, Mr. Bendiſh, and other Merchants were examined, touching the Limits to be ſettled in the American Seas, who demonſtrated before their Lordſhips, that it was impoſſible for a Ship to ſail the Windward Paſſage without being liable to tranſgreſs, ſhould any ſudden Squall ariſe; and thereupon pray'd their Lordſhips to adviſe His Majeſty not to ſuffer any Limits to be fix'd, leſt our Ships ſhould be a continual Prey to the Spaniſh Guard de Coſtas. Several Sailors were alſo examined upon the Point, which laſted 'till 8 at Night.

It is reported, That the Parliament will ſit till the latter End of May, on Account of the Affairs of Spain.

March 27. The Parliament has granted 20,000 l. for Georgia; and 10,000 l. for the Garriſons on the Coaſts of Africa.

Laſt Week His Majeſty's Ship the Diamond, Capt. Watſon, was hawl'd out of Deptford Dock; and is ordered for the Mediterranean.

The Right Hon. the Earl of Berkley is appointed a Lord of the Bedchamber to the King. And,

Colonel John Pitt is appointed Governor of South-Carolina.

We hear the Earl of Balcarras will be elected one of the Sixteen Peers for North Britain, in the room of the Earl of Selkirk, deceas'd.

The Houſe of Commons is grown very thin ſince the laſt Week; one Party ſeems to have entirely left the Houſe.

They write from Vienna, That the Specific for curing the Plague, which was communicated to the Imperial Court ſome time ago, by a Malteze Eccleſiaſtic, has been ſent to Hungary; and that if it proves as effectual as the Author pretends, he is to receive 10,000 Florins for his firſt Reward.

Great Preparations are making at Norfolk Houſe for the Chriſtening of the young Prince: His Grace the Arch-Biſhop of Canterbury is to Chriſten His Highneſs, and we hear his Name is to be EDWARD.

We hear that a Revenue will be ſettled on his Royal Highneſs the Duke.

March 31. A Patent has paſſed the Seals, appointing Sir John Norris, Admiral of the Fleet or Union Flagg, Vice Admiral of England, and Lieutenant of the Navy, in the Room of the late Earl of Berkley.

London, April 2. His Majeſty's Ships the Burford, Grafton, and Buckingham, of 70 Guns each, and the Norwich of 50 Guns, which were lately reduced to their loweſt Compliment of Men, are order'd to be full Man'd with all Expedition; and we hear that To-morrow ſeveral Ships of War will be put into Commiſſion.

By Letters which arrived on Thurſday laſt from Smyrna, we are inform'd, that ſeveral Jews of that Place had been lately detected and hang'd, for ſupplying the famous Sarey Bey Oglou with Proviſions, &c. and that the famous Sarey Bey Oglou himſelf had been taken, and is now confin'd in a ſtrong Caſtle: And it is not doubted but that the whole Body of thoſe Rebels, which have ſtruck ſuch a Terror to the Inhabitants for ſome Time paſt, will be routed, to the great Advantage and Satisfaction of all thoſe that Trade to thoſe Parts.

On Saturday laſt died, aged 102, at Woodford Bridge, Mrs. How, Mother of Mr. John How, formerly a Woollen-Draper behind the Exchange.

April 3. We hear that his Majeſty will go to the Houſe of Lords on Thurſday, and give the Royal Aſſent to the Land-Tax, and ſeveral private Bills.

On Friday an Order was iſſued from the Lords of the Treaſury to the Board of Works, to ſurvey the Ground in Cotton-Garden, for building the two new Houſes of Parliament, and to give in to their Lordſhips an Eſtimate of the Expence.

On Sunday laſt the Rev. Mr. Whitefield preach'd at the Bolling-Green, Hannam-Mount, and Roſe Green, to vaſt Multitudes. (At Roſe-Green there were upwards of 20,000; at the Bowling-Green, on Monday, not leſs than 7 or 8000.) On Tueſday at the Brick-Yard near the Glaſs-Houſes. On Wedneſday the Church was offered at Publoe, but not being near big enough for the People, they withdrew to a Common hard by; there were forty Horſe, and many got up in the Trees. On Thurſday he dined with the Colliers at Two Mile Mill, and began a

Subſcription

Subscription for a School-House to teach their Children; which met with uncommon Encouragement.

April 4. We are inform'd of the following extraordinary Wedding: Thomas Aſhman, of Lindhurſt in the New Foreſt, Hants, aged 89, was lately married to Mother Springer, of Minſted in the New Foreſt, aged 101. It ſeems theſe two old People had ſuch juvenile Inclinations, that they could not ſtay till Lent was over, and therefore had a Diſpenſation to play the Fool.

The Salisbury, Blandford, and Two other Coaches, were lately robb'd near Stockwell, by a ſingle Highwayman, about 20 Years of Age, well mounted, by which he got above 20 l. In one of the Coaches was a Clergyman, and his Maid Servant, very well dreſs'd, who deliver'd to the Fellow about 3 l. but ſhe told him, ſhe was a poor Servant, and that it was all ſhe was worth; which the Highwayman ſaid he was ſure was a Lie, in both Articles, from her Appearance; but the Coachman confirming what ſhe ſaid to be true, he return'd her the Money, ſaying her Maſter ſhould pay for it; and accordingly oblig'd the Parſon to ſtand a Search, by which he found his Watch, Rings, and ſome Money, that were conceal'd before.

Extract of a Letter from Nottingham.

'Hymen has erected his Throne; all Hearts pay him 'Homage; even our College of Veſtals ſeem inclin'd to 'break their Vows, and take his Yoke upon them; 'particularly,

'The beautiful Miſs Nelly Cone, a Lady of 12000 l. 'Fortune, and many extraordinary Qualities (eſpecially her Abhorrence of that Spirit of Slander, which 'rages among too many of that otherwiſe moſt amiable 'Sex) is to be ſpeedily married to one of the prettieſt 'young Things of the Town, a Diſſenting Teacher.

'The renowned Champion of Orthodoxy, Mr. Sloſs, 'is on the Point of Matrimony with the charming Miſs 'Nanny Hemus, a Lady famous for her ſharp Wit and 'fine Teeth; a Fortune of 3000 l.

'Mr. Eaton, a Diſſenting Teacher, lately joined in 'Wedlock with Mrs. Marchbank, Relict of James Marchbank, Eſq; a Lady of exquiſite Beauty, and a Fortune 'of 5000 l.

'The Rev. Mr. Town was laſt Week married to the 'agreeable, good-natur'd Miſs Broughton, a Lady of a 'very good Family and Fortune.

'Many other Treaties of Marriage are on the Carpet.'

Boſton, May 11. Letters from Lisbon of April 9, N. S. mention, That the Court there has prohibited the Importation of all Eaſt India Goods, except what is brought Home in their own Shipping; for which end, they are going to lay open the Trade in general to all Perſons that will go there. They are in daily Expectation of the Rio Fleet's Return: The Pernambuke and Bahia Fleets were to depart the Tagus (being under ſtrong Convoys) in Five Days.

We have an Account from Walpole, of a very ſorrowful Accident which happened there the laſt Week; on Monday the 7th Inſtant, a Child of one Mr. Samuel Sheers of that Town, a Son, in the Tenth Year of his Age, wander'd from his Father's Houſe into the Woods near the great Cedar Swamp, and miſſing his Way took into the midſt of the Swamp, where he periſhed with Hunger and Cold, it being a very rainy and cold Seaſon: All poſſible Endeavours were uſed for finding this poor diſtreſſed Child; great Numbers of People ſpent the Week throughout in ſearching for him with great Aſſiduity, without Succeſs: But laſt Lord's Day, between Five and Six Hundred Men from the adjacent Towns, viz. Dedham, Stoughton, Wrentham, Medway and Medfield, gather'd together, who forming themſelves into an orderly Rank of about a Mile and a Half in Length, which was joined by about Two Hundred Men more, march'd into the Swamp, ſo as no Part of it might eſcape their Inſpection; and accordingly about One o'Clock, P. M. they found him lying dead on his Back, with his Arms folded acroſs his Breaſt, partly under a puddle of Water. His Corpſe was decently interred the next Day.

Capt. Fadre, who arrived here the Beginning of laſt Week from St. Chriſtophers, took up, when at ſome Diſtance off of Euſtatia, a young Man named William Hewet, who ſwimming upon the Water, ſurpriz'd them very much, calling out for Help ſeveral Times before they diſcover'd who or where the Voice came from: This young Man belonged to a New-York Veſſel, Capt. De Bois Commander, bound for North-Carolina from St. Kitts, and had accidentally fell over board into the Sea, where he had been (as he himſelf ſuppoſed) near an Hour and an Half: Capt. DeBois had tack'd ſeveral Times to ſave him, but at laſt was obliged to bear off and leave him. Capt. Fadre has brought him hither in good Health.

We have Advice from Jamaica, that the Small-pox is very prevalent there; but of a favourable Kind.

Newport, Rhode-Iſland, May 11. Capt. Charles Davidſon arrived here laſt Wedneſday from the Bay of Honduras, who informs, that about the firſt Day of March laſt, Capt. Collis, Commander of a Sloop belonging to Providence, was taken by the Spaniards, at the Weſt End of Torneff, lying at Anchor, who kill'd Capt. Collis, Mr. Joſeph Williams, and William Barbour, aboard their own Veſſel, and carried their Sloop away. The ſaid Spaniards alſo took a Sloop belonging to Boſton at the ſame Time, commanded by Capt. Cobb, and took him, his Veſſel and Company away with them. They alſo took a Sloop belonging to Bermuda at the ſame Time, commanded by Capt. Burges, and carried her and Company away alſo.

New York, June 4 Laſt Week a young Woman, the Daughter of Adolph Brower, of Hackenſack, was bit in three different Places by a Rattle Snake, as ſhe was gathering Strawberries; the injected Venom opperated ſo ſpeedy that ſhe died in a few Hours.

Philadelphia, May 31. Yeſterday one James Johnſon met a Man riding into Town, who (in Company with another Man not yet taken) robb'd him on his Journey from North-Carolina to this Place of upwards of Three Hundred Pounds Carolina Money, and a Note for Fifty Pounds Sterling; and laid hold of him: The Highwayman beg'd not to be expos'd, and pretended he had marry'd a rich Widow in Town, and would immediately refund the Money, if the other would go with him to his Houſe; on this Pretence he led him to the outſide of the Town, then leap'd on his Horſe and made his Eſcape down to the Lower-Ferry; but finding himſelf cloſely purſued, and the Boat not ready to go over, he made into the Neck, where he was taken ſome Hours after; and being examin'd before a Magiſtrate, was committed to Priſon.

Philadelphia, June 7. We are informed by a private Letter from New York, that Capt. Clinton, Captain of a Man of War, is appointed Governor of New-York; and that he is to come in a Man of War that is bound to Newfoundland.

On Sunday Night, about the Hour of Eleven, there was a very ſevere clap of Thunder, which ſtruck the Houſe of Andrew Hamilton, Eſq; but did no Damage, only broke ſome China, &c.

An Act of Aſſembly is lately paſs'd here, by which all the preſent Money is to be re printed and re-emitted for 16 Years, with the additional Sum of 11,110 l. 5 s. half the Intereſt of which additional Sum will be ſufficient to diſcharge an Allowance made to the Proprietors as a Recompence for paying them the Quit-rents in Paper-money inſtead of Silver: And the remaining Intereſt on the whole Sum to be current, being fully ſufficient to ſupport the Government without a Tax, no Man can poſſibly feel the leaſt Inconvenience by that Allowance. Add to this, that that all Persons renewing their Mortgages in the Loan-Office, or borrowing Money on this Act, may do it without the usual Fees for drawing the Mortgage, Recording, &c. which are to be paid out of the Interest Money, much to the Ease of poor People. And the Proprietors agreeing to take our Paper-Money instead of Silver, for their Arrearages, &c. at 16 d. for 1 s. Sterling, the Credit of the Money is by this Expedient supported and preserved, which is a Matter of the utmost Importance to the whole Province.

Extract of a Letter from a Person in Bermuda.

" Since my last, we have had here such a terrible " Storm of Hail, as hath not been known in the Memory " of Man: It happen'd on the 12th of March past. The " Stones were considerably bigger than Turkey Eggs. " I saw some of them measured Ten Inches round.
